Business in the Community Ireland	The Inclusive Employer Blueprint (2019)	Practical guide to create inclusive workplaces and reduce social inequality in Ireland. It is designed to be a starting point for any employer interested in building an inclusive society starting with their own company. For those companies already applying a social lens to their diversity and inclusion strategy this blueprint will complement existing activities.	https://www.bitc.ie/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/BITC-Enclusive-EmployerWeb.pdf
Business in the Community Ireland	Making consistent impact: Environmental Trends, Best Practice and Supports (2019)	The current rate of depletion of the earth's natural resources is unsustainable. We need materials to function as a society, but in the last 30 years alone we have used up one third of the earth's natural resources. In addition, climate change is posing significant challenges and risks to society. Businesses can play a key role in addressing these problems and in reaching the global and European greenhouse gas emissions targets.	https://www.bitc.ie/wp-content/uploads/2015/09/Environment-Trends-Best-Practice-and-Support_FINAL1.pdf
CAF Southern Africa	Beyond Integrity: Exploring the role of business in preserving the civil society space (2016)	In producing this report, the Charities Aid Foundation (CAF) has been able to identify four case studies where actions have been taken by the private sector to support civil society independence and interview key protagonists from both sides of the relationship.	http://www.cafsouthernafrica.org/images/caf-beyondintegrityreport-web-oct16v2.pdf
Canadian Business for Social Responsibility	Carbon Tech: A Primer on Carbon Capture, Conversion,	In the absence of strict greenhouse gas regulations or a high carbon price, carbon capture and storage is too expensive with little or no financial return. Carbon capture and conversion technologies, or "CarbonTech", use CO_2 to make	https://irp-cdn.multiscreensite.com/6a4e36b0/files/uploaded/CBSR_Carbo

There is an exciting opportunity to become a global CarbonTech leader and this emerging sector can scale to its potential as a trillion dollar global industry by 2030.	nTech_Report_V4.pdf
Club de Excelencia en Sostenibilidad	Accessibility Guide for Companies Publication (2011)	Persons with Reduced Mobility (PRM), and wheelchair users often experience journeys with poor safety and comfort. For this reason, the Club de Excelencia en Sostenibilidad and Fundación Adecco, in collaboration with AENA and Renfe, launched the Accessibility Guide for Companies 2.0, containing a special edition about Transport Accessibility. The guide aims to give businesses the necessary tools to rethink spaces and facilitate the integration of people with disabilities into society.	http://www.clubsostenibilidad.org/publicaciones/guia-de-accesibilidad-para-empresas-2-0-edicion-especial-accesibilidad-en-el-transporte/
Community Business	Mental Health Toolkit (2018)	This toolkit is designed to assist and support companies to raise awareness and increase understanding towards tackling mental health issues in the workplace. It provides ideas and resources of what companies and individuals can do to support employee mental wellbeing.	https://www.communitybusiness.org/latest-news-publications/mental-health-toolkit
Impronta Etica	Enterprise, sustainability and work. Towards new ways of creating value for the community (2014)	How will work change in the future? Which role will innovation play? What does it mean to be a sustainable company? Impronta Etica tries to answer to some of these questions in this document. The report analyses the role of responsible companies in creating new job opportunities and improving the quality of work. The English version does not contain the review of best practices but does contain the methodological framework developed by the association.	http://www.improntaetica.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/12/Entreprise-sustainability-and-work_ENG_DEF.pdf
